Balance Consolidation

Transferring a balance from one credit card to another can reduce payoff time, and potentially save money in the long run. In 5 minutes, or less, you can submit your request to transfer a balance.

Contact your financial institution for the current balance consolidation rate.

Use available credit to pay off loans or credit cards with higher interest rates.

Please note that requests to transfer balances to a credit card that does not have sufficient available credit will not be completed.

What you will need:

The most recent credit card statement, or e-statement, of the card you want to payoff
-OR-
The address and account information for the service you want to pay

By clicking 'Next' below, you will be redirected to the Balance Consolidation website where you can complete the request to transfer funds. Please keep in mind that information provided on the Balance Consolidation website is separate from the information previously provided here on your Financial Institution's website.
